Mr. Umanskiy's professional background includes more than 10 years of experience providing security program development and implementation for major corporations; educational institutions; and Non-Profit Organizations. In addition to performing numerous risk/threat assessments in the U.S. and abroad, Mr. Umanskiy also successfully completed many projects including, but not limited to, the following:

- Organizational Security Strategy development
- Asset Protection Program development and implementation
- Development of policies, standards, procedures and guidelines
- Development of comprehensive training programs for employees and security staff
- Internal and external due-diligence
- Systems design and engineering
- Space planning
- Specification development
- Bid package preparation, review, and negotiation
- Security construction administration
- Systems acceptance testing
- Follow-up training and oversight

Prior to joining Kroll, Mr. Umanskiy served as Senior Security Specialist at Prudential Financial, Inc. and as Security Consultant at the City University of New York (CUNY) Research Foundation. His primary responsibilities included assessment, planning, and implementation of comprehensive asset protection programs and systems. Mr. Umanskiy's affiliation with aforementioned organizations provided him with an extensive background in asset protection consulting and diverse projects management.

Since joining Kroll, Mr. Umanskiy has provided consultancy, project management, and design services for a variety of internal and external clients for the development of comprehensive security programs and systems. Mr. Umanskiy is also currently teaching security system design and implementation as part of a Graduate Program in Protection Management at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
